The Prospect Ahead.

The time is at hand that the fax-payers of Holt county can breathe free. The Country Railroad, amounting with principal and interest up to date to $83,000. will be paid as rapidly as the boug-holdas all the collections for 1871 are made, this Railroad indebtedness—that has with by the bereaved relatives. weighed so heavily on the people of this county-will be cancelled and be burden of the past.

R. project, and is new being sued in the Supreme Court at considerable additional cost to the tax-payers of that county, Holt county, believing that "honesty is the best policy," came up "like a man" and paid every dollar that the agreed to pay, Holt county has thus sustained unsullid her credit in fluancial circles, and stands to-day No. 1 on the list of counties in Missouri, and is out of debt! It is true, suffering to be taxed year after year, and paying $83,000 for a our county not one cent, calls forth tax for 1871:

heaviest tax-payers. The sums set opposite their names is their respective sycophantic reporter, are on the alert as and against the resolution.

Senator Roseberry support curses, on the heads of the men in au thority who had to provide for the payment by taxation of these bonds. Bu it must be remembered that this debt was contracted during the palmy days of Democratic rule in this state and county. The creditors who had paid their money to grade the track, build culverts, &c., could not be expected to lose their investments. And there was ne getting around for our Republican county administration from paying the debts contracted by our Democratic predecessors. These had either to be paid or repudiation resorted to, as in the care of Andrew county.

In spite the obligations resulting from the R. R. bonds, our taxes for 1871 wer much lighter than in our neighboring counties. In Nodaway and Andrew counties they pay nearly I per cent more on the hundred than we do. And is Denophon county, Kansas, they pay a high as 5 per cent.

By a judicious management of ou county finances the taxes for 1872 peer not be much ever one per cent. We ar assured by the gentlemen composing ou County Court, that one per cent in 187 will be all that will be required, cover ing the taxes for State, County, Rose and Bridge purposes. An unappropri ated surplus in the Treasury will enable the county to take steps toward secur ing the purchase of a Poor Farm, leav ing but a elight indebtedness, if any, or that needed institution.

A few of our citizens are disposed to censure the County Court because it CARD FROM REV. The battle began to wage hotter and flercer as the hour of adjournment drew near, for it was determined by its friends, to bring it to a vote.

Excitement ran very high, The Lobbles were filled by men who represented the Gold Ring. One man who was here last winter on the same busines, in company with one who for money used on that occasion not his own, is now taking meals in the Penitentiary, to which one alluded in his excited argument.
